

Join your fellow school public relations professionals at MinnSPRA's next Think and Drink event to learn, vent and chat with people you enjoy.

- WHEN: Wednesday, April 3, 2019, 4:30-6:00 p.m. Come join your colleagues and warm up your creative muscles the night before the MinnSPRA 2019 Spring Conference!
- WHERE: Mad Jacks Sports Cafe, 935 County Road E East, Vadnais Heights
- THEME: The Beauty of Creative Problem-Solving
- WHAT: As communicators, we are continuously tasked with coming up with creative solutions to the latest challenges. But what do you do when your creative energy is low and your creative toolbox is almost empty? Special guest Troy Strand, White Bear Innovation Coach, looks forward to sharing his successes of embracing creativity to lead to impactful problem-solving processes. Marisa Vette and Ariana Babcock of White Bear Lake Area Schools serve as this session's Think and Drink facilitators.
- COST: No cost to participate – but attendees buy their own drinks and food
- RSVP: Plan to attend? Please RSVP by March 25 to Ari Babcock at ariana.babcock@isd624.org or 651-407-7578 so we can be sure to have enough space.

This is fourth in the 2018-19 Minnesota School Public Relations Association's series of Think and Drink events. Each Think and Drink has a different facilitator and different starting topic, followed by an around-the-table opportunity to ask advice or share a story.

Interested in hosting sometime? Contact Barb Nicol, APR, at Barb@BarbNicolPR.com.

www.minnspra.org